VOL. IV. NO. 258. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 30-31, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE OPENING AT LAKESIDE.

Lakeside's fifteen day meeting began yesterday and the opening was a rousing one. About 4,000 followers of the sport went to the track, and a majority, it is safe to say, went to see Imp and Macy come together again. They were not disappointed as both started in the mile and one hundred yards race. This, of course, was the principle attraction, but the card all through had a sprinkling of good horses and the racing in general was up to the standard.

As was expected, syndicate betting prevailed. Leo Mayer and Barney ("Kid") Weller had the privilege. The prices offered, though, were very liberal, taking for example the quotations on the Imp-Macy race. The latter naturally, on account of his big pull in the weights, was a decided favorite, but as good as 9 to 10 was always obtainable. The race on form looked strictly between the pair, yet 3 to 1 straight and even money for the place was always Imp's price.

With Tom Burns on Macy, and he the favorite, it appeared most probable that the bettors would play him. Imp, however, has won for them so often that they took another chance on her, and all during the betting there was a steady play on the honest black filly. The moderate bettors to a man were down on her. On the other hand, the big fellows took advantage of Macy's pull in the weights and played him. The place price on Imp being so liberal, there was many a century note wagered on her that way.

The race was fourth on the program, and just before they went to the post a drizzling rain set in. Starter Dwyer had some little trouble in getting the field lined up, but after a delay of about five minutes sent them away to a good start. Imp was in front, Macy second and Boanerges third. Storm King was last on the outside, and seemed to be short on speed. Around the first turn Imp, on the rail, was a scant length in front of Macy, with Dr. Shepard third. Down the backstretch Imp increased her lead, and on the far turn she seemed to draw away from Macy.

The filly, in most all of her races has opened up a winning gap at about this same spot, and when the crowd saw her part company with Macy, a shout rang out that could have been heard almost to the city. "There she goes," "Catch her if you can," "There is nothing to it," and remarks of that sort could be heard on all sides. The public's jubilation, though, was short lived, for, when Burns got ready, he went to the black whirlwind in a jiffy and when straightened away for home it was evident that Macy would win. About the eighth post Shepard hit Imp a couple of times with the whip. She swerved from it and the boy seeing he was beaten eased up. It was a stirring race and well appreciated.

Rumor has it that Imp was short. If this be true she will be benefited by the race and quite probably turn the tables on Macy before the season closes.

Czarowitz, with Burns up, was a 9 to 5 favorite for the initial event. He certainly gave his backers a good run for their money, but those that played him straight only still hold their tickets. Burns got away with the favorite clear of his field and was in front all the way to the stretch. Here Locust Blossom, who was always in a good position, took command, and, untouched, by whip or spur, won with speed in reserve. It took all Czarowitz had left to stall off Barataria's rush and get the place. Borden, heavily played, was sixth, and Branch, under a bad ride, finished a bang up fourth.

Frank Bell, despite the fact that he was giving away a lot of weight, was a 9 to 20 chance for the second race. Bloss rode the colt, and getting off second soon went to the front. On the far turn Frank Bell opened up a big gap, and nothing was ever able to get near him after that. He won easily at the end by three lengths. Fontainebleu, almost left, ran a sparkling race and was second with Boney Boy, poorly handled, third. Cathedral, second into the stretch, died away at the end and was fourth.

The fourth race was an easy thing for Braw Lad. This colt far outclassed his field, but the liberal price of 3 to 1 was offered against him. Caywood was up, and getting off in the first flight always had something up his sleeve. He waited head and head with Graziella to the three-eighths post where he cut loose and drawing away from the others as though they were tied won off by himself and with a lot in reserve. Gold Band, with Burns up and the betting choice, was fourth. Newsgatherer, thanks to Bloss' good judgment, got the place.

The fourth race was the Imp-Macy contest and then came a five and a half furlongs dash, which was a gift to Abuse. The Foster Bros.' horse was a 1 to 5 chance and won, as he should, in a gallop. Bloss got Abuse off badly and rode a poor race, but the sprinter was so much the best that it was hardly possible for him to lose.

The closing event, which was at nine furlongs, was run in the dark. Clay Poynter, the 2 to 1 favorite, led all the way and won handily. Double Dummy, at the false price of 4 to 1, and poorly ridden, finished second, with Mr. Easton third. The field was well bunched all the way.

James O'Leary was a spectator Saturday at Lakeside. At one time O'Leary owned and controlled a great part of that track. He still has stock in it, but is taking no active part in the racing. Mr. O'Leary said he had sold out his interest in the poolroom he had at Roby to Jack Nesmet and as Leo Mayer and "Kid" Weller have the betting privilege at the track, he is a gentleman of leisure.

YEARLINGS OF PROMISE.

"Kelston" of the Morning Telegraph thinks some of the 2-year-old stars of 1899 are at Morris Park, and has this to say about some that he has inspected:

"There are close to a hundred yearlings at Morris Park, and unless I am very much mistaken quite a number of them will prove to be close to, if not quite, first class.

"In W. Karriek's string there is a raking, big framed chestnut colt by Potomac, out of Marvel, that has shown a wonderful turn of speed, and as he is an improving sort, with good bone, there is every reason to expect that he will prove a bit more than a commoner. Arthur White, who owns him, is very sweet on him and it is to be hoped that he may prove a real clinker.

"In the same string Mr. Reynolds owns a colt by Victory, out of a Himyar mare, that has also been highly tried. Like all of the get of Victory, he is a bit on the plain order, but he is a rare mover, and looks one of the sort to come early to hand. Another very promising youngster in Karriek's string is a chestnut filly by Hanover, out of Dawn of Day, sister to Cash Day, by Strathmore.

"In A. J. Joyner's string the Himyar-Lady Agnes colt has been highly tried, while several others have shown fairly well. The Fonso-Falerna colt, purchased recently at the Applegate and McMeekin sale, has not yet been asked much. This is a bloodlike colt and one of promise.

"In J. Hynes' lot, which he has been handling for Mr. James R. Keene, more than the average number have shown good trials, and as they are mostly all good specimens of different types and out of mares that have already produced winners there is every prospect of the popular white and blue polka dots being very much in evidence next season. The chestnut colt by Domino-Lucy Wallace, which is patterned very much after his sire, is a racehorse already and carries himself like a 4-year-old. He is a bold, resolute mover, with beautiful action, and I doubt if many of our fleetest horses in training could stand the pace that this clean-cut young Domino can set. Another very nice Domino is the brown colt out of Mereshill, by Macgregor.

"But of the colts by Domino the brown out of Bonnie Gal may develop into the highest class horse of all. This is a lengthy, nicely balanced colt, with good bone, and looks all over the makings of a high class horse. Like all the rest of the young Dominos, he is a nice dispositioned colt, and although he has not shown the phenomenal speed of the Lucy Wallace colt, I prefer his chances of developing into a good racehorse.

"The chestnut colt by Hanover, out of Hot Scotch, was amiss for a time. Consequently he has not been in condition to try like some of the others. Enough, however, has been done with him to know that he is very fast, and as he is a true actioned and bloodlike colt I am rather sanguine of his proving one of the best Hanovers of his year. Of the fillies in the Keene lot, the chestnut by Domino, out of Fair Vision, dam of Horoscope and Miss Tenny, which is a lengthy, racy line, has shown to be very fast, as has the Cerito filly, by St. Leonards, a big framed raking colt, with good bone. This filly promises to develop into a very fine type of mare of the rangy, roomy pattern.

"The Sister to St. Cloud, a smooth turned, well finished, powerful bay, with rare limbs, is a grand goer, and with as much speed as any of the lot. There are several others in the string that have shown well in their trials, but the above named, I think, will prove to be the best of the bunch. J. Hynes, who has broken and handled these youngsters, is to be congratulated on their condition as well as their perfect manners, which latter is a most important point which all practical horsemen understand and appreciate."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Tom Nepper shipped a car load of yearlings belonging to George Bennett and the Cahn brothers to Memphis the other day. Mr. Nepper will campaign a string of horses at New Orleans this winter for Mr. Bennett. He expects to race Forbush, Gath, Miss Frances, Night Gown and several other nags at the New Orleans meeting.—St. Louis Republic.

Maher, the lightweight jockey, surprised Dr. D. T. Sullivan of St. Francis' Hospital, Hartford, Conn., Friday, by a donation of $500 to that institution. Maher's home is in Hartford and he thought a contribution to the hospital at this season would be productive of good.

No action has as yet been taken by the Latonia management with reference to an extension of the present meeting. The matter will be decided within the next three or four days. If the weather continues as it is now the meeting will be extended.

If there had been six races at the Oakland track yesterday, Burns & Waterhouse might have had better luck, but it must in all fairness be said that they did the best they could under the circumstances.

Good Times, bay colt, 4, by Rossington—Famine, by Jils Johnson, the property of A. M. Orpen, Toronto, Can., when being thrown for the purpose of firing, in struggling with his head, broke his neck.

ALBERT EDWARD'S HORSES.

The breeding of live stock is carried on at the Prince of Wales' Norfolk residence on a tolerably extensive scale. Shorthorns and sheep, shire horses, hackneys, and blood stock are all reared at Sandringham, and with no little success, though at first sight perhaps the locality would scarcely strike one as well adapted for the production of the thoroughbred. The Sandringham estate, however, which now extends to about 12,000 acres, includes a variety of soils, and it is to the advantage of horse breeding that limestone is found. On Monday last it was that a small party of journalists visited Sandringham, at the invitation of the Prince of Wales, to look over the stud farm devoted to the thoroughbreds, Lord Marcus Beresford, who manages the Prince's stud, and Sir Dighton Probyn acting as hosts, with a kindness which left nothing to be desired. Much as one admired the occupants of the boxes, it was impossible to leave out of consideration the stabling itself, which is singularly convenient and complete. The boxes are longer, wider and higher than the usual run of stables; in fact, the size of the boxes makes all the horses look smaller than they are. Built of stone quarried on the estate, they are roofed with slate and thatched underneath the slate, an arrangement which goes far to insure an equable temperature. The old boxes, in front of which is a straw bedding exercising ring, house some brood mares, as also do the new boxes, built not far away, and these, too, have large exercising yards attached to them, while near Wolferton some more boxes are being erected for the public mares which visit the Sandringham stud. Persimmon is, of course, the central figure of the Sandringham stud, and evident honor is paid to him. Outside his spacious box is a brass plate setting forth his victories and the amount won by him in stakes, the sum representing (including second money) about £35,000.

Persimmon has developed into a remarkably fine horse, his appearance, as well as that of the mares and foals, reflecting the highest credit on Walker, the stud groom. The horse's coat is just breaking now, and that, of course, makes a little difference; but most other horses are in the same boat. St. Simon, as every one knows, is a grand horse, but he is unquestionably light of bone. His son, Persimmon, on the other hand, is a horse of great substance, a characteristic which is doubtless due to the coarser Melbourne blood nicking with the lighter Vedette strain. At all events, Persimmon is a grand looking horse, and as his subscription list is full for the next two or three years at 300 guineas, it is evident that breeders think highly of him. His Derby victory is not yet forgotten; in fact, few will fail to remember his final tussle with St. Frusquin, or the scene which followed the hoisting of Persimmon's number, while the popularity of the royal colors was evinced later on when the horse won the Ascot Cup.

The yearlings we did not see, as they have been sent to Newmarket to Marsh's place to be trained for their engagements; but the brood mares were on view, and they are a very nice collection. The first to be looked over was Fanchette, by Speculum—Reticence, the dam of Versailles and Eventail. Perdita II. is a Hampton mare, naturally an object of interest, for is she not the dam of the famous Persimmon and Florizel II. (the latter is at Newmarket)? She was foaled in 1881, and is beginning to show signs of age, but, barring accidents, she should be good for several more foals yet. Merrie Lassie was on the sick list, for she was un-

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A Windsor dispatch to yesterday's Enquirer says: "Sixty or more horses that have been racing at Windsor left by the Detroit and Cleveland Line of boats for the Forest City tonight. Next Monday a race meeting will open at the half mile track of the Valley Fair Association, a few miles out of Cleveland. It was the original intention of the promoters to race for $100 purses. According to the rules of the Western Turf Congress and the Jockey Club the lowest purse that could be offered was $250. A number of bookmakers chipped together and offered to guarantee the purses, and on these conditions a number of stables racing at Windsor have been shipped to the Ohio city.

"The meeting is scheduled to last a week, but if the game proves good and the attendance is up to the mark it may be continued indefinitely. Among the Detroiters who will make books are Billy Howard, "Long John" and others. Allen Dale has shipped his stable, consisting of Cavotte, Debride, Rosa Duke, Love Letter II, and six others. Schnitz Edwards has sent on Imposition and Kas. Judging from the horses sent on the meeting ought to prove a success."

With the imported sires Siddartha and Woodmoss and a choice band of well selected broodmares Dr. A. W. Mc Alester has been for several years quietly breeding good racehorses on his stockfarm near Columbia, Mo. That he has succeeded well such cracking good fillies as Belle of Memphis and Lady Callahan furnish ample evidence. At Lakeside, before the races Monday, he will offer for sale at auction eight colts and two fillies by the sires mentioned. They are said to be big, well grown yearlings, and because of their fine breeding and the speed already shown by their near relatives should be well worth paying good prices for. The colt that is more than a half brother to Belle of Memphis is said to be especially worthy of keen competition.

lucky enough to slip twins to St. Simon about ten days before our visit. Before she became the property of the Prince of Wales she threw Grig, Fosco and Jest, and possibly she was not dear at the 3,500 guineas Lord Marcus Beresford gave for her on behalf of the Prince of Wales. Merrie Lassie, like Laodamia, Pierette and Sweet Muscat, have been put to Persimmon, and, with ordinary luck, the produce should be worth some money, either for racing or stud purposes. Persimmon, it will be remembered, is home bred, so it is only right and proper that he should now stand where his babyhood was passed. The foals are eight in number, and several of them show great promise. The colt foal by St. Simon—Merrie Lassie is the favorite, and a good looking youngster he is, with the best of shoulders. Next to him, perhaps, comes the filly foal by Ladas—Unrefined.—London Field, October, 15.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ecuador—Kittie Gunn.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next four were driving. Howitzer was the best of an indifferent lot. Mellie showed startling improvement. Rush Fields ran his race. Ondague is a bad betting proposition. Stockholm showed early speed.
Scratched—Banrica, 102.
Overweights—Popocrat, 24 pounds.
Howitzer, place, 3 to 5. Mellie, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Jack Hayes, show, 6 to 5.

Time, 134, 264, 40, 54, 1:081.
Winner—Ch. f, by Ban Chief—Becky B.
Post 15 minutes. Start fair. The first five were driving hard. Sis Vic fell after passing the half-mile ground and Pat Garrett tumbled over her. The accident changed the running of the race. Becky Ban ran a good race, but Chancery, a slow beginner, ran better. Pretty Rosie collapsed at the finish. Lela Murray was speedy for three furlongs. The winner is in good racing fettle just now. Piccola also ran a great race.
Scratched—Rico, 97; Wend, 97.
Overweights—Crinkle, 3 pounds.
Becky Ban, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Chancery, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Piccola, show, even.

Winner—B. c, by Deceiver—Brigetta.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Great Bend was cut off twice on the far turn and badly messed about in the stretch. Fireside was stopping. It was too far for Tom Collins. With the adjustment of weights What Next was the best.
What Next, place, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by Hayden Edwards—Vibration.
Post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a hard drive. Miss Josephine was the best, although she had to be ridden vigorously at the finish. Mazo showed improvement. Volandies is entitled to a rest. Galathee could not raise a gallop.
Miss Josephine, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Volandies, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Florissant, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. m, by The Minstrel—Minnie May.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Kittie B held the others safe at all stages. Barton swerved into Osric II in the stretch. Barton was the only horse in the race that had a chance besides the winner. The race, distance and condition of track considered, will have a bad effect on those engaged in it. Belle of Corsica had enough after going a mile.
Barton, place, even.

Time, 25, 504, 1:04, 1:174, 1:304.
Winner—Ch. f, by Chance—Locust Bloom.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next four were driving to the limit. Locust Blossom looked a winner all the way. Holden got her off flying on the outside, and rode a good race all through. Czarrowitz tired at the end. He was off flying, always had clear sailing, was well ridden and had no excuses. Barataria was right there and running strong at the end. He is good now. From a bad beginning Branch ran a corking good race. He was bumped and jostled, but stood it gamely. Hindoonet and Borden both tired badly in the stretch. The latter's wind is affected and the stiff breeze was probably the cause of his stopping.
Scratched—Julia Hazel, 100; Inuendo, 103; Prince of India, 108.
Overweights—Borden, 3 pounds; Clifton B, 2.
Locust Blossom, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Czarrowitz, place, 7 to 10. Barataria, show, even.

Time, 124, 244, 364, 494, 1:024.
Winner—B. g, by Big Henry—Flora Leach.
Off at first break to a poor start. Won handily; second whipped out. Third and fourth under a terrific drive. Frank Bell is a speed marvel. He got away well on his stride and opened up a winning gap the first three furlongs. After that there was no'ing to the race. Fontainebleu ran a cackling good race himself and had been given an even break he more than likely would have given Frank Bell an argument. Keep this colt in mind for early action. Boney Boy suffered from poor handling. Seaton got the colt sharply cut off on the far turn and messed him about generally. Cathedral, outspeeded the first part of it, made a bid on the turn but died away on the end. Judging from the race she does not possess the speed to beat Frank Bell. Falomacita showed early speed, but, like Cathedral, could not last. Mrs Jimmie was short.
Scratched—Annawan, 100; Harry Nutter, 90; Rosavannah, 87; Rival Dare, 87; Sam Lazarus, Esq., 90; Pat Cleburne, 87.

Time, 13, 24½, 1:01½.
Winner—B. f. by Sir Modred—Memento.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Lady Lindsay came on gamely in the stretch. Captain Sigsbee ran a much improved race over his last previous one. Tyran had a lot of speed but was too much used at the post. Ninety Cents showed early speed. The others cut no figure in the race.
Scratched—The Gardener, 105; Lost Time, 105; Lepida, 102; Foolhardy, 100.
Lady Lindsay, place, 1 to 4; Captain Sigsbee, place, 1 to 4. Tyran, show, even.

Winner—Ch. c. by Himyar—Jewel Ban.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Frohman had a lot of speed. He came again in the last sixteenth after appearing to be beaten. Little Daly rode a good race, but he could not help Frohman much at the finish. Clawson, on Charentus, was overconfident. Blueaway was shut out twice and unlucky.
Scratched—Free Lance, 110; Gala Day, 105; Tanis, 104; Doggett, 104; Myth, 104; Marsian, 103.
Overweights—Regulator, 1 pound.
Frohman, place, 7 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Charentus, place, 1 to 4.

Winner—Ch. f. by Rayon d'Or—Flying Fish.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Fleeting Gold ran a remarkably good race for her, and was cleverly handled. An unlucky break probably cost Tabouret the race, the ground she had to make up telling. L'Alouette seems to be only a sprinter. Sagacity was short.
Scratched—Come Quick, 103; Lady Disdain, 103; Blissful, 103.
Overweights—L'Alouette, 1 pound; Sagacity, 1.
Fleeting Gold, place, 2 to 1; show, 3 to 5. Tabouret, place, 2 to 5.

*First series.
Time, 24, 48, 1:01, 1:07.
Winner—Ch. f. by Midlothian—Free Love.

Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Midlove was much the best at the weights, was off flying and well handled. She is very speedy and in fine form. Etta H was badly jostled at the start and closed a big gap, finishing very gamely. P F ran a good race, but was out-classed. San Mateo took the long route and was badly ridden. Little Sister will do in slower company. Mocorito was hopelessly out of it from the start.

Scratched—Lord Marmion, 115.

Overweights—Midlove, 2 pounds; Etta H, 1.

Midlove, place, 3 to 5. Etta H, place, even. P F, show, even.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:15.
Winner—Br. c. by Stromboli—Clara L.
Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. It was a hard drive of six to near the finish. Obsidian, off slowly, was pocketed several times, but came out like a flash in the last sixteenth and was much the best. Los Medanos ran an astonishing race for a green one and may be able to beat this field later on. Magdalenes failed in the last few strides after looking like a winner, and may have been short. Elizabeth R. closed a big gap from a bad beginning. Sam McKeever labored throughout, though hard ridden. Casdale was cut off on the back stretch and ran an impressive race under difficulties.
Scratched—Lime Water, 107.
Overweights—Magdalenes, 3 pounds; Correct, 2.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:14, 1:27.
Winner—B. f. by Maxim—Napa.
Start straggling. Won in a gallop. It was a two horse race throughout, with Napamax always holding La Goleta safe. She is very fresh and good and in grand form. La Goleta ran an impressive race and is very good also. Morellito is a mudlark and better over a greater distance. Red Glenn began slowly, but finished with a rush. The others belong in lower company.
Scratched—Rosinante, 104.
Corrected weights—Napamax, 104.
Napamax, place, 2 to 5. La Goleta, place, 1 to 3. Morellito, show, 7 to 10.

9304 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. Inaugural Handicap. Value $1,250. All ages.
